3. X Education has a period of 2 months every year during which they hire some interns.

The sales team, in particular, has around 10 interns allotted to them. So during this phase, they wish to make the lead conversion more aggressive. So they want almost all the potential leads (i.e. the customers who have been predicted as 1 by the model) to be converted and hence, want to make phone calls to as much of such people as possible.

Suggest a good strategy they should employ at this stage.

Answer: To make lead conversion more aggressive during the intern-hiring period, X Education should focus on leads from high-potential sources, leverage effective communication channels, maximize website engagement, and maintain a multi-channel approach.

4. Similarly, at times, the company reaches its target for a quarter before the deadline. During this time, the company wants the sales team to focus on some new work as well. So during this time, the company's aim is to not make phone calls unless it's extremely necessary, i.e.. they want to minimize the rate of useless phone calls. Suggest a strategy they should employ at this stage.

Answer: To minimize the rate of useless phone calls, the sales team can employ the following strategy:

- Sending automated SMS to customers that have very good likelihood of getting converted
- Provide discounts or incentives to potential customers to encourage them to take action.
- Focus on building relationships with potential customers through other communication channels like email, social media, or chatbots.
- Gather feedback from existing customers to improve the quality of the leads generated and optimize the conversion rate.
